BETTER THAN GOLD!

PORTSMOUTH, July 9, 1851. Mr. J. E. Bousn-Dear Sir: I feel it a duty to make snown the benefit I have derived from Dr. Hampton's VEGETABLE TINCTURE. For a number of years suffered from disease, but to a greater degree for the last three years. One of the forms of my disease was dyspep-sia. From this dreadful malady I suffered to such an extent that life was really a burden. The attack of it on me was different to that on any other person of whom I have heard; at times it was like the palpitation of the heart; there was a constant thumping and beating without intermission about the region of my heart, chest, and stomach; some of the attacks would last for weeks; my stomach was much distended, with constant pain, great eakness, and constipation of the bowels. I could not cat the most simple food without pain. I also suffered greatly from disease of the kidneys, with constant pain eat the most simple food without pain. I also suffered greatly from disease of the kidneys, with constant pain in the back, that I could walk only with great difficulty. I tried nearly all of the most celebrated patent medicines of the day, but found no relief. I had also the best medical attendance. One of my physicians frankly told me it was of no use for me to be paying him for advice, as he could do me no good. I gave up almost in despair, and thought my disease certainly incurable.

At this juncture I heard of Hampton's Vegetable Tincture. I refused to give it a trial, although persuaded by my friends, until my son purchased a few bottles, and roquested me to try it; after taking it a few times, it had a most happy effect on me; my confidence increased, and after taking three bottles, my dyspepsia, or disease of the stomach, was nearly if not entirely cured. I now feel myself a new man, and in better health than for years. I am certain the cure in my case was made by this Hampton's Vegetable Tincture alone. Since my cure I have recommended the tincture to a number of my friends, who have also been relieved by it. Some of the cures have been as rapid and equally wonderful as mine.

I present my respects to Messurs. Mortimer & Mowbray, the proprietors of this valuable medicine, and say to them its value is above price; and from my cure, and what I have seen of its effects on others, I shall ever feel it my duty to recommend it to the suffering. I have no doubt many valuable lives will be prolonged by its use. I hope the afflicted will cast aside their prejudices and give it a trial. Yours most respectfully,

The above is extracted from a letter from a gentleman

trial. Yours most respectfully, (Signed) JOHN LEEE.

The above is extracted from a letter from a gentleman sixty years of age, and of high character. He says: "I have given but a faint idea of my sufferings; I feel inadequate to the task." We also have received, in the last few days, letters from two of our most worthy and well-known citizens, giving two remarkable cures of spinal disease. But yesterday one of the oldest merchants reported that he was cured of neuralgia of the head, of years standing, and so bad that his teeth fell out from its effects. Call and see letters. Was there ever so many cures, wonderful cures, made by any other medicine. All we ask of the afflicted is that they try Hampton's Vegetable Tincture, the great purifier of the blood and cure for all chronic diseases, as dyspepsia, rheumatism, scrofula, and all complaints of the stomach, bowels, &c.

NEW YORK, Sept. 27, 1851.

Messers. Editors:—As we were making the Battery, in the steamor from Perth Amboy, the passengers were discussing the chances of lodgings when they should land, as all had heard, before leaving Philadelphia, that all the hotels, boarding houses, &c., were full in New York, and so we found it. There are more people, perhaps, at this time in the city of New York, than were ever assembled here before. Out of pure favoritism we were permitted to sleep three in a room at the Irving.

At the breakfast-table we recognised many from our city—the family of the President, W. W. Corcoran, esg., and others.

is the great scarcity of money. The best paper sells at a discount of 2 per cent. per month! NEW FURNITURE AND OTHER HOUSEKEEP-The old steady and cash-buying houses, who sell on six months credit, are doing business very shyly-disposed to lie still until the storm blows over-while the merchants of the time-buying houses are seen standing about their stores, as though they were hearing distant thunder—as though it were death to stand still, and worse than death to go ahead. The banks now breaking in New Jersey have in no way lessened the fear of a coming crisis. Various and multiplied causes are assigned for this state of things—extravagance, immense importation, crops being good in Europe, no demand for our breadstuffs, no cotton shipping, and consequently specie must be taken from the banks to go over to pay for the importations. If, from a panic, a run should be made upon the banks just now, in their present state of depletion, it will be hard to tell what will be the consequence.

in the Gladiator, last evening, at the Broad-way, we went, and such a jam!—(the fact is, there is a jam everywhere here, even in the streets.) We were disappointed, for we had seen Forrest play this piece before in Washington, at the theatre where Copp's Hotel now is, when we were much younger, and when stage performances appeared more real than Mr. Forrest was fairly received, though there was evidently an effort to make some effect for him, on the part of a portion of the audience, throughout the piece; and when the curtain fell, he was furiously called for. At length he appeared in front of the curtainpanting and rolling his tongue around his mouth, a good deal more than necessary. 1 thought he could not be fatigued, for he was a full quarter of an hour, at full length on the stage, in the dying scene—(Forrest takes too long to die)—in which he must have rested. He commenced by saying that, under present circumstances, his reception of that night was the crowning act of his life; and then went on to refer to his delicate domestic matters, which, while it made the pit to roar and storm, made the judicious grieve! At this moment Captain Rynders, who sat in a front scat in the dress circle, rose, and waved a white handkerchief over and around his head, as a signal for the grand effort, as I thought, when such a shout!-which emanated mostly from the second tier-arose as only can be given by the "b'hoys." On Thursday evening we heard that George Savage, esq., of Washington, was to lecture on temperance at the Hall, No. 5 Chatham Square. We went, and among other things he said, by way of illustrating the effects of the example of drinking in high places, that Capitol Hill, at Washington, was about the hardest place in the city, on account of the example which the mbers of Congress set the boys up there. The hall was crowded, and this remark made quite a sensation-the women looked to their husbands, who nodded their heads as though they had heard this before. Mr. Savage's fame has traveled here before him. He is to address a meeting here to-morrow, the 28th inst., out-doors, where a collection is to be taken up for Father Mathew, who is here, soon to return to his home over the deep, after making himself much richer in good works, but very poor in every thing else. I am told that two or three thousand persons are expected to be present to hear Mr. Savage, on Sunday.

STILL ANOTHER of our most talented and highly respectable citizens speaks for Hameron's VEGITABLE TINCTURE:

Baltinore, July 18, 1851.

Messre. Mortimer & Mowbray:—Gentlemen: My daughter having been afflicted for more than a year with the spinal disease, and having tried every remedy that was prescribed by some of our best physicians, without affording her any apparent relief, I fortunately was advised by a friend to try a bottle of "Dr. Hampton's Veget'able Tincture," which relieved her of her pain in less that twenty-four hours. I am pleased to say that sin e sh took it she has been free from pain, and she is gray jually gaining strength, which I attribute entirely to the reston ative properties of this medicine. I believe if it wer moved of such diseases incident to the human faur sily the what is usually prescribed.

Very respectfully, your obedient servant,

Robert Kern.

BLACKWOOD'S MAGAZINE,

ERITISH QUARTERLY REVIEWS.

WING to the late revolutions and counter-revolutions among the nations of Europe, which have followed each other in such quick succession, and of which "the end is not yet," the leading periodicals of Great Britain have become invested with a degree of interest hitherto unknown. They occupy a middle ground between the hasty, disjointed, and necessarily imperfect records of the newspapers, and the elaborate and ponderous treaties to be furnished by the historian at a future day. Whoever reads these periodicals obtains a correct and connected account of all the important political events of the Old World, as they occur, and learns the various conclusions drawn from them by the leading spirits of the age. The American publishers therefore deem it proper to call renewed attention to the works they publish, and the very low prices at which they are offered to subscribers. The following is their list, vis:

The London Quarterly Review,

THE LONDON QUARTERLY REVIEW, THE EDINBURGH REVIEW, THE NORTH BRITISH REVIEW, THE WESTMINSTER REVIEW, and BLACKWOOD'S EDINBURGH MAGAZINZ.

THE WESTMINSTER REVIEW, and BLACKWOOD'S EDINAURGH MAGAZINZ.

In these periodicals are contained the views, moderately though clearly and firmly expressed, of the three greatest parties in England—Tory, Whig, and Raddeal; "Blackwood" and the "London Quarterly" are Tory, the "Etinburgh Review" Whig, and the "Westminster Review" Liberal. The "North British Review" wes its establishment to the last great escelesiastical movement in Scotland, and is not ultra in its views on any one of the grand departments of human knowledge. It was originally edited by Dr. Chalmers, and now, since his death, is conducted by his son-in-law, Dr. Hanna, associated with Sir David Brewster. Its literary character is of the very highest order. The "Westminster," though reprinted under that title only, is published in England under the title of the "Foreign Quarterly and Westminster," it being in fact a union of the two Review's formerly published and reprinted under separate titles. It has, therefore, the advantage, by this combination, of uniting in one work the best features of both, as heretofore issued.

The above Periodicals are reprinted in New York, immediately on their arrival by the British steamers, in a beautiful clear type, on fine white paper, and are faithful copies of the originals—Blackwood's Magazine being an exact fuc simile of the Edinburgh edition.

Amherst College, Dec. 25, 1848.

Mr. Robert Scars—Dear Sir: I have looked over the entire series of your valuable publications with much interest and profit; and am quite surprised at the amount of literary labor you have performed, and the research it must have cost you to obtain so many fine illustrations, while you have an active superintendence of an extensive business. I am also gratified at the decidedly moral and religious influence which your books will exert, and cannot but hope that they will do much to counteract the effects of that light and immoral literature which deluges the land, and, like the frogs of Egypt, comes up even to the kneading troughs of our kitchens. May you live long to follow your plans.

Respectfully and sincerely, your obliged servant, EDWARD HITCHCOCK.
